Gratefulness.

Mr. H. Sampel, Ottawa, Kansas, writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & CO., Columbus, O.—Gentlemen: I have suffered for seven years; have tried every thing and many physicians, and all have failed. I went to Pittsburgh, and while there fell on the street my breath seemed to leave my lungs, and numbness overpowered me. I determined to give PERUNA and MANALIN a fair trial. I used four bottles of each, and my trouble left, never, I hope, to return. I left Pittsburgh three weeks ago for Kansas, and thought, as I was going to a new country, I had better take a bottle of MANALIN with me, on account of bad water, etc. I arrived here with one-half bottle. I found one of my friends in a pretty bad condition. The doctors were treating her for chills and fever. I did not know what her trouble was, though I persuaded her to use the MANALIN. She did so, and the first day was up doing her work. Now she seems strange, but it is, nevertheless, a candid truth. She used it all, and has never had cause to lie down during the day since she took the first three doses."

A Case that was Pronounced Incurable.

Miss C. C. Peck, 714 Jackson street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "DR. S. B. HARTMAN & CO.—Gentlemen: I take great pleasure in stating to you the benefit I received from your valuable PERUNA. I have been suffering for about fifteen years with a severe cough and bronchitis (the doctors called it a cold), and was treated by different physicians, and spent considerable money for different kinds of patent medicines, but received no benefit whatever. Dr. Fox, of this city, claimed I had consumption, and there was no hope for me ever getting better. I was so bad that I coughed almost continually. Mrs. Henry Ellis, a friend of mine, induced me to try PERUNA. I am happy to say I began to notice a change after I had taken my second bottle. I took eight bottles in all, and now I feel like a new woman. If it hadn't been for PERUNA I think I would be in my grave now. It is a wonderful remedy, and I recommend it to all my friends."

Messrs. Baker Bros., Mt. Vernon, O., write: "I have a great stock of PERUNA. It sells well and gives satisfaction."

Mr. Daniel R. Spry, Portsmouth, O., writes: "I have a great stock of PERUNA. It sells well and gives satisfaction."

THE SENATORIAL STRIFE CONTINUES IN A PANDEMONIUM.

The Struggle Waves Hotter 'Mid the Discussion of Parliamentary Law—Sharp Manoeuvring Among the Rank and File—Full Particulars.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 16.—The democrats held a caucus at the St. Nicholas hotel to arrange a plan for carrying on the fight and elect a United States senator. Shortly after convening Senator Ball introduced the following resolution which was greeted with applause on being read:

"Resolved, That the democratic members of the general assembly do hereby agree to vote in the joint assembly for Judge Lambert Tree for United States senator until he shall receive for three ballots 101 votes; then if he shall not be elected we shall proceed to vote for each other person and in such order as this meeting shall designate, until such shall receive for three ballots 101 votes, or until some person is elected. That this meeting shall proceed at once to designate the persons to be voted for and the order in which they shall be taken."

After some discussion the following gentlemen were selected as the party candidates to be voted on in their regular order: Lambert Tree, John C. Black, Carter Harrison, John P. Altgeld, John W. Palmer, W. J. Allen, R. W. Townsend, John L. Schofield, S. C. Judd, Elijah M. Hise, M. M. Fuller, and John H. Oberly. The proceedings were conducted with order and good fellowship, and after the transaction of the above business the caucus adjourned.

The first two hours of the morning session witnessed one of the most tumultuous scenes ever enacted in a legislative chamber. Speaker Haines took the chair and the proceedings opened. Mr. Ruger and Mr. Stitt were absent. As soon as the gavel had fallen Speaker Haines demanded that Mr. Weaver, a newly-elected representative, should be admitted to a seat in the joint assembly. This was received with a tornado of "hiss."

Chairman Haines, amidst roars of applause, ironically asked, "Who is this Weaver?" and further suggested it would be a good thing if the joint assembly would see that all its legitimate members were present before discussing the admission of outsiders. Haines again vociferously demanded the admission of Mr. Weaver. Haines just as promptly declared the motion out of order. A decision was appealed and the yells and roars were heard. The decision sustained the regular a declining to vote.

All this time the uproar was indescribable. When the vote had been taken, Speaker Haines declared that the ballot for senator was in order. Again Mr. Mason re-enforced by Mr. Fuller, objected. It was, he said, past 10 o'clock, the regular hour for the meeting of the senate and house, and therefore as a matter of fact the joint assembly was dissolved until noon.

Copious extracts from the proceedings of the United States senate were quoted in support of this position, but the occupants of seats on the democratic side shouted louder than ever for the roll call.

In the midst of the uproar Lieut. Gov. Smith mounted a seat and in stirring tones requested the republican senators to withdraw. As one man they rose to their feet and filed out, the republican representatives forming a double line of honor, cheering frantically as the senators passed between. The senators will return at noon. In the meantime the democrats will continue the ballot.

Immediately upon the withdrawal of the republican senators, Mr. Linsger (dem.) proceeded to speak against time in accordance with the decision of the democrats to prevent a session of the house before noon, when republicans must come in. The democrats propose to prevent Weaver taking his seat by continuing the joint assembly indefinitely whether the republicans consent or not. The republicans are inclined to admit Ruger (rep.) will vote with the democrats. He is occupying Speaker Haines' room and intercourse with him shut off.

A compromise has been affected between the managers of both sides by which they agreed none except the informal ballot should be taken until Tuesday next. The reason for this is that the democrats would not allow Mr. Weaver to be seated except in the house, and not in the joint assembly. The republicans said they would not allow the ballot to go on if they didn't take in Mr. Weaver's vote. Hence the bargain to avoid a row. The joint session adjourned, and on motion of Mr. Crates, Mr. Weaver was sworn in amid wild cheers.

Rolling Mills Resume.
CHICAGO, May 16.—The North Chicago rolling mills will resume operations Monday with about 1,000 men. The company gave the striking workers their decision and stated that they could resume work at the old prices—$1.35 to $1.50 per day. The men accepted the proposition. Several hundred additional men have been put to work around the docks. There is great rejoicing in South Chicago.

A Mute Child Murdered.
KANSAS CITY, May 16.—Miss Annie Ellis, fourteen years old and a mute, was found at her home with a bullet in her side. Her mother went to a store and when she returned found her daughter on the floor dead. No pistol could be found, and it is suspected she was assassinated by unknown persons. No cause can be assigned for the murder.

Wanted to Murder for Money.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—D. H. Jordan, a young man, approached ex-Senator Sharon with an offer to kill Miss Hill for money, but became frightened and ran away. He was followed home and found to be the son of a well known contractor. It is supposed he had been drinking. Sharon will not prosecute.

Highways on Work.
FR. KNOX, Mo., T.—May 16.—Highwaymen have begun operations in Northwestern Idaho, on the regular stage routes into the Coeur d'Alene mines. Two masked men with revolvers held up two stages owned by rival companies, that every afternoon leaves Rudrum for Coeur d'Alene city and the mines. The first stage contained a white man and a Chinaman and the Wells-Fargo company's express box. The white man yielded up $17 and a watch, the Chinaman nothing, and the express box nothing. The second stage was very valuable. The second coach yielded $135 in cash and a watch and chain. The hold footpads escaped.
